ASSUMPTION OF RISK, RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT
I understand and acknowledge, as a voluntary participant in the 10K or 5K Rex Lee Run to be held on March 14, 2009 organized by the BYU Cancer Research Center (BYU), that this activity is a high risk and inherently dangerous activity; that I have been informed of this fact and have been advised to take appropriate precautionary measures to provide for my safety and that I expressly agree to assume the risk of this activity, to release and to indemnify BYU and its officers, agents and employees from any liability for any injuries, accidents, illnesses, damages or claims which I may sustain as a result of my participation in this activity even if such is occasioned by the negligence of BYU.

I further understand that this activity will include, but is not necessarily limited to, strenuous extended long distance running and walking in public and/or private streets, in uncertain and changing weather conditions, in and among motorized vehicles, bicycles and among other walkers, runners, skaters and other participants, all of which places me at considerable risk of personal injury, illness or even death.

Notwithstanding this risk, I also agree to be responsible for, to release and to indemnify BYU against any expenses incurred or damages suffered as a consequence of my participation in this activity and represent that I am 18 years of age or older and that I carry adequate personal accident or health insurance.

I agree to return the timing transponder and its attachment device to an appropriate race official after the race. If I fail to do so, I agree to pay a replacement fee of $5 for the timing transponder and attachment device.

I also agree that my name, age, race results, city and state of residence may be published electronically or in print as part of the race results.

The undersigned, by his/her signature below, affirms that he/she has carefully read this Assumption of Risk, Release and Indemnity Agreement, understands its contents and purposes, and voluntarily agrees to all the terms set forth above.
